

NATIONAL SOCIETY FOR EDUCATION
IN ART & DESIGN

Inspiring outstanding art, craft and design education

If you are a teacher, lecturer, curriculum leader, early years practitioner, museum or gallery educator, education consultant, governor, inspector, NQT, PGCE student or trainee teacher:
NSEAD is for you.

NSEAD Member benefits:

- fortnightly e-bulletins
- share ideas and information in networks and online
- engage in our professional development programmes
- a range of discounts including reduced fees for our courses and free entry to some exhibitions
- three issues a year of our termly magazine, AD
- three online issues a year of iJADE (International Journal of Art and Design Education)
- reviews and advice on specialist publications
- online bookstore

What does NSEAD offer?

- advocacy for art, craft and design education
- a single national voice promoting our subject
- up-to-the-minute news and key developments
- resources to inspire and develop your practice
- training and professional development
- specialist books for art, craft and design education
- trade union membership and support
- online and face-to-face networks
- opportunities and links with arts and cultural organisations

