Art & Design Teacher

Start: September 2019 © Part-time PM or Full-time © Salary: Main-scale +

This post is suitable for experienced teachers with a strong practice and passion in Art & Design. The successful candidate will teach Art & Design to pupils across the school. They will be responsible for ensuring that pupils experience a broad curriculum with sufficient depth which include a wide range of media. They will also be responsible for special art related projects in the school, for example, the Big Draw and Arts Award. Bigland Green offers:

- Established systems for life-work balance so that staff can provide outstanding teaching & learning
- Arts Award (Gold) award for over ten years
- A designated art room with a kiln
- Specialist teachers for Art, Music, PE and Spanish (not part of PPA)
- A full-time TA in every class across the school
- Specialist TA to support pupils with reading and 'speech & language' needs
- An effective intervention programme (PiXL) across KS1 and KS2
- Life Skills support for pupils who are new to English language
- Modern, spacious building which is very well resourced

Bigland Green has an amazing staff team who are talented and highly motivated to deliver a first-class education. The school is fortunate to have well behaved, motivated pupils who love attending school every day to learn and grow. At the heart of the school's work is to make teaching and learning more enjoyable and a worthwhile experience for everyone.
