

SUBSCRIBE TO START

START magazine is published by the National Society for Education in Art & Design with the support of Arts Council England.

A subscription to START entitles you to four issues of the magazine a year, including the A3 poster and teaching notes, and full access to www.nsead.org – a massive resource for art, craft and design teaching and learning with a dedicated section for primary schools. Subscribers are also entitled to attend NSEAD professional development events at reduced members' prices.
