

#ArtEdAdvocacy

1

'Art makes the world a better place.
It encourages human beings to make an 'original' contribution to our world'

Bob and Roberta Smith RA OBE, NSEAD Patron

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'The arts teach children that problems can have MORE than ONE solution and that questions can have more than one answer'

Elliot Eisner

10 Lessons the Arts Teach

#ArtsIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy/elliott-eisner

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Children are natural artists, they draw, they play,
they lack inhibition.

Art education develops and encourages that imagination. It helps students to look, to use all their senses and to develop a myriad of new neural pathways. Whatever career they choose, this lifelong knowledge is invaluable'

Cornelia Parker, RA OBE
NSEAD Patron

#ArtIsNotALuxury
nsead.org

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Craft creates curiosity, builds connections, opens new perspectives, inspires innovation and supports wellbeing. Craft is joyous'

Nicky Dewar
Learning & Skills director
The Crafts Council
AD Magazine, Issue 34

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org
nsead.org/publications/ad-magazine

craftscouncil.org.uk/learning/craft-school-yinkas-challenge

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

- 'BLACK LIVES MATTER. Art matters. Toward the achievement of social justice and the work of shaping human potential, the value of each life and every creative act indispensably enriches us all'

Dr. James Haywood Rolling, Jr.
President of the National Art Education Association

Open Letter to Art Educators on Constructing an Anti-Racist Agenda

#ArtIsNotALuxury

arteducators.org/advocacy-policy/articles/692-black-lives-matter

nsead

5

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Be proud of your story, and your upbringing and your culture. What makes your story special is that there's only one of you, so use that to your advantage and use that in your work. Don't be afraid to be vulnerable or tell stories that are quite personal to you.'

Yinka Ilori, artist

#ArtsIsNotALuxury

craftscouncil.org.uk/learning/craft-school-yinkas-challenge

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

‘Cultural education subjects encourage pupils to express themselves, to build confidence and to develop creative thinking skills, unlocking young people’s potential and preparing them to succeed in life’

Dr Darren Henley OBE
Chief Executive; Arts Council England

Art, craft & design: a guide for governing boards
ACE, NGA, NSEAD

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Young people tell us that arts and cultural learning in school is significantly different because: in arts lessons they have more agency, responsibility, independence and freedom to make decisions. They enjoy and are motivated by this'

Time to Listen

Tracking Arts Learning and Engagement, TALE

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

9

'Art education is not a luxury because it is imperative to the future of humanity. Art education holds the creative key to rethinking how the world works and will allow us to create a generation of thinkers, crucial for the green revolution'

Patrick McDowell
Fashion Designer

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Art for me in the 21st Century is about Equality, Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging. We need artists and creative cultural practitioners to lead the way, and I wish for 2022 to be a year where we use our power as agents of change not just to support our communities but ensure they thrive'

Paula Orrell
Director of CVAN

#ArtIsNotALuxury
nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Teach a child to draw and you teach them the language that enables them to communicate with the whole world'

Liz MacFarlane, President, National Society for Education in Art and Design

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'How we teach the arts is as important as the fact we're doing it'

Michael Rosen

Children's author, poet, broadcaster and professor of children's literature

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Art uses the hands and the mind and all the senses to coordinate an expression of the imagination. Every decent polymath of the last thousand years understood that art was integral to our relationship with the universe. The amazing Hildegard de Bingen used all of these things'

Dr Janina Ramirez

NSEAD patron, cultural historian, broadcaster, author

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'All education is an introduction to the future. It's a struggle over the future you want for young people'

Henry Giroux
Scholar, writer, cultural critic

#ArtIsNotALuxury
https://youtube/fU32KItL_b8

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'I've realised that as I create artwork, dialogue emerges alongside. I make something. It doesn't work but it eliminates one way forward and presents another. And another. And another. I am shaped by that which shapes me. And so making art becomes an act of self-care'

Dr Rachel Payne, Senior Lecturer Art Education at Oxford Brookes University, Immediate-Past President NSEAD

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/publications/research-reports-and-reviews

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Teaching young people creative subjects stays with them forever..

The 'creative process' can help them on so many levels. It can bring pride, joy and wisdom and help visualise their own goals throughout their lives'

Keith Brymer Jones
potter and ceramic designer NSEAD patron

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'The mainstream education system allows very little room for the imagination and creativity... In a new ecological educational system each and everyone of us will have the opportunity to be artists'

Satish Kumar

Peace and Environmental Activist

#ArtIsNotALuxury
NSEAD Inspirations
youtube/5dI5wKYibCI

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Take a break for two minutes.
Make some random marks on paper or a dusty surface, anything.
Make a scrap piece of paper into something interesting.
Don't think about 'art' or 'drawing'.
Making helps thinking.
You never know where it might lead..'

Glen Coutts
President InSEA

#ArtIsNotALuxury
insea.org/our-manifesto/

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

‘Inclusive art and design practices are not optional but fundamental and essential if we want to carve a positive future for culture for all’

Dr Deborah Riding,
Principal Editor, iJADE

#ArtIsNotALuxury

2020 Volume 39: Number 3 nsead.org/publications/ijade

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Reading and writing may help shape us - but it is drawing which helps us see - and dream. There are many languages but only drawing, making marks with meaning, is truly universal and open to all.
Drawing is the great democratiser, innately mercurial and creative in nature, with the power to truly change lives'

Kate Mason
Director, The Big Draw

#ArtIsNotALuxury
thebigdraw.org

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Art is Power'

Paul Dash
Artist, Writer, Art Educator

#ArtIsNotALuxury
nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'As a collective, we are stronger.
When we support one, we support all. For art education to thrive, art educators must stand together. Our learning spaces need to be workplaces where art and people can flourish'

Michele Gregson
General Secretary, NSEAD

#ArtsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'Higher education level creative subjects provide individuals with skills and abilities leading to a plethora of career opportunities in interesting and sought-after roles employers need now and into the future'

Sandra Booth

Director of Policy, Council for Higher Education in Art and Design

#ArtsIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

‘My aspiration is that every single child, regardless of their race and culture, has access to a high-quality art education that reflects them and their lived experience’

Marlene Wylie

NSEAD President Elect, 1 Jan 2022

#ArtIsNotALuxury

nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'The Creative Industries have been one of Britain's biggest exports and our biggest source of revenue. For the government to underfund art education in schools is such a false economy. It is like pulling up hedgerows to accommodate mono-cultures, undermining all kinds of rich habitats, and limiting many future possibilities'

Cornelia Parker, RA OBE
NSEAD Patron

#ArtIsNotALuxury
nsead.org/community-activism/advocacy

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

‘The arts also help us to learn to say, show and feel what needs to be said, shown and felt, helping to advance the horizons of knowing, being, and communicating in and beyond the arts’

UNESCO, REPORT FROM THE INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION ON THE FUTURES OF EDUCATION

#ArtIsNotALuxury

Unesco, Reimagining our Futures Together: a new social contract for education

nsead

#ArtEdAdvocacy

'I'm all for positive change and improving access to art – education being the critical foundation for this.

I keep thinking of all my happy memories making art in primary school, it certainly gave me confidence and self belief, fundamental to my growth, not just as an artist, but as a person'

Sarah Graham

artist and mental health advocate

#ArtIsNotALuxury
nsead.org

nsead