Thinking of everyone where ever they are we pray for our sorrows to the end. Memories we cherish our wounds will Heal, with scars in our lives can never be forgotten. The victims laid rest will find only peace, and families and friends will grant their blessing. Our worlds been torn apart but we all share the same earth, water and one sky. A light opens the door as we enter a world of paradise. The VICTIMS OF GRENFELL will GRANT their PEACE.
